Wine Description:

D.O.C.G. Area lying between the towns of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene. It is a hilly area of morainic origin with calcareous soils mixed with loam and in some cases also calcareous-clayey soil.

Tasting Note:

This Prosecco has some yeasty, spicy character amongst the ripe peach and citrus fruit. It is fuller and more rounded, the bubbles are more defined and the flavours linger satisfyingly in the mouth.
