Wine Description:

Domaine du Colombier is a well-regarded estate known for its traditional and respectful viticulture in the Northern Rhône region. Located in the heart of Crozes-Hermitage terroirs, the estate produces red wines that are concentrated and balanced, typical of the Syrah grape variety. The vineyard extends over clay-limestone and granitic soils, benefiting from a continental climate with Mediterranean influences. This terroir allows Syrah to develop complex aromas and a pleasant freshness. Is characterized by a clear aromatic expression and an elegant structure. It reflects Domaine du Colombier's expertise with a balance between power and finesse.

Tasting Note:

Appearance: Clear ruby red color with purple highlights.

Nose: Aromas of ripe red berries, peppery nuances, and delicate floral notes.

Palate: Smooth attack, a balance of pleasant freshness and fine tannins, with a slightly spicy finish.
